Career Path: Psychology

Graduates will be well equipped for public and private sector careers that require knowledge of human behavior, development, and motivation. This may be especially useful to students pursuing careers in the provision of human services, law enforcement, community mental health, research, education, and management, as well as graduate studies in many areas including psychology, art therapy, music therapy, counseling, business, human services, law, and mental health.

Internships

As you complete your degree, you'll begin to consider what field you'd like to dedicate your career to. Completing an internship can help give you an idea about which area you feel most passionate about. To date, our students have worked in the following fields:

Community-Facing Career Internships

Horizon Health // People Inc. // Catholic Charities
Child and Family Services // Buffalo Urban League
Buffalo Federation of Neighborhood Centers
